

High School Tuition

Full-Time Schools

Enrollment Fee	5,650 yen
Tuition (Per year)	118,800 yen
In case you receive the payments from High School Tuition Support Fund※	0 yen

Part-Time Schools () are fees for Yokohama Municipal schools.

Enrollment Fee	2,100 yen (1,200 yen)
Tuition (Per year)	32,400 yen
In case you receive the payments from High School Tuition Support Fund※	0 yen

You need to pay school fees to study at high school.
Please see page 16.

First, you need to think about Entrance fee and Tuition after passing the entrance examination.

If your household income is about 9.1million yen or less, however, you do not need to pay public high school tuition because the High School Tuition Support Fund system helps you.

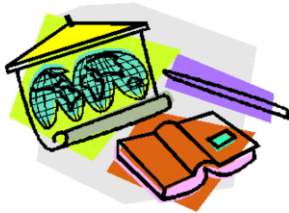

If you go to a private high school, this fund system subsidizes its tuition, too.

You need to apply for it, though.

Details are shown on page 17 of the Guidebook. Please read it carefully.

Amount of school expenses for the first year

Tuition(private), textbooks, school uniform, PE uniform, student council, reserve for school excursion and so on.

approx. JPY40,000

public part-time
high school

approx.
JPY200,000

public full-time
high school

JPY900,000
or more

private high school

Please read the bottom half of page 16 for other expenses. Besides the tuition, there are school expenses for textbooks, school uniform, PE uniform, student council, reserve for school excursion and so on.

Estimated amount of school expenses for the first year is 40,000 yen for a public part-time high school and 200,000 yen for a public full-time high school.

For private high schools, it is approximately 900,000 yen or more though the amount differs significantly from school to school.

Immediately after passing the entrance examination, a considerable amount of money will be necessary for school uniform, textbooks and so on.

Some of the high schools collect fees for those at the orientation for new students.

Please be sure to prepare for it.

Scholarship

※ For households which have financial difficulty, there are systems to lend money.

For details, please refer to "the list of scholarships" on the reference material page.

For households which have financial difficulty, there are systems to lend money.

For details, please refer to "the list of scholarships" on the reference material page.

Never give up until the very end!

Illustration by a high school student from Brazil

This concludes our explanation.

Everybody, never give up until the very end and catch your dream!